Verduno: We were charmed by Evan Polenghi's whimsical animal illustrations, printed on pillows of dupioni, mulka, or fussa silk. Measuring 20 or 26 inches square, the pillows are available in a selection of colors, including mauve, nutmeg, spicy brown, and paprika. P.O. Box 1297, New York, NY 10156; 212-873-1456. circle 498

Herman Miller for the Home: Several products from the fantastic Finnish designer Alvar Aalto have been added to the Herman Miller for the Home line. Included in the Museum of Modern Art's permanent collection, this elegant tea trolley has a ceramic-tile surface with solid birch banding and handle, plus a laminated birch frame. 8485 Homestead Drive, Zeeland, MI 49464; 800-646-4400. circle 499

Forms + Surfaces: Comet, from the Lever collection, would be a lovely addition to any door. Cast in solid stainless steel or bronze, the handle is offered in a variety of finishes. 6395 Cindy Lane, Carpinteria, CA 93013; 877-323-3344. circle 500

Anichini: A passion for paisley led us to the richly hued and elaborately patterned napkins and placemats of the decadent Taj collection. Available in three colorways: violet-citrine, coral-fuchsia, and rust-sage. 4 Larkin Road, Tunbridge, VT 05077; 800-553-5309. circle 501

Nollette Studio: Second only to a bug zapper as the ultimate patio accessory is the versatile Cube table-stool made of cast concrete with casters. 64 Union Street, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, NY 11231; 718-596-0966. circle 502
